Bullet Train 1.1 Update Apr 8 2013 News 1 CommentS A long update that hopes that fixes most of the problems people have run through and the game boosts just a black screen. If this problem effectively makes sure you get the most recent version and that your directx is up to date and that should fix most of the issues. If you still have problems with the game showing up a black screen to make sure you don't have dual monitors allowed as this will cause the game to only have a black screen.
